

2017 UM Homecoming Ambassador Application/Nomination Form

Thank you for your interest in the Homecoming Ambassador program!

As reincarnations of Homecoming royalty, Ambassadors represent UM students at Homecoming events and serve as honorary liaisons to visiting alumni and friends. Students chosen as Homecoming Ambassadors must be full-time and in good standing, with three semesters completed and a GPA of at least 3.0. Previous Ambassadors or Homecoming Royalty are ineligible.

All applicants must be available to participate in the following events:

Interviews (30 minutes or less): Depending on the number of applicants, we may limit the number of applicants who are granted interviews.

Friday, September 29th, 9am-1pm; Monday, October 2nd, 2-5pm;
Tuesday, October 3rd, 12-2pm

One half-hour interview with the selection committee within these time slots.

Distinguished Alumni Awards Ceremony and Reception:

Friday, October 13, from 4:45pm – 8 pm in the University Center Ballroom
Ambassadors serve as ushers, and will be recognized at this time.

Homecoming Parade and pre-game activities:

Saturday, October 14, from 8:30 am – 5 pm

Ambassadors will be driven in the front of the parade with other dignitaries, and be presented on the field at Washington Grizzly Stadium prior to the Grizzly Homecoming Football Game against Southern Utah. Ambassadors will have reserved seats at the game, and are also encouraged to visit the Alumni Tailgate Party.

*Ambassadors may also participate in additional Alumni events throughout the 2017-2018 school year, as requested by the Alumni Association and President's Office, and as their schedules permit.
